CONDITIONS OF SALE

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer. If any dispute arise the Auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to settle it; and to put any disputed lot up again.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds 5s., and so on in proportion.
- III. All lots are put up for sale subject (a) to any reserve price imposed by the seller and (b) to the right of the seller to bid either personally or else by any one person who may be the Auctioneer.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and if required, to pay down 10s. in the pound or more, in part payment of the purchase money; in default of which the lot or lots purchased may be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. All lots are sold as shown with all faults, imperfections, and errors of description. Messrs. Sotheby & Co. act as agents; they have full discretion to refuse any bidding or to withdraw any lot or lots from the sale without in either case giving any reason; they are not responsible for errors of description or for genuineness or authenticity of any lot or for any fault or defect in it. Messrs. Sotheby make no warranty whatever.
- VI. The lots to be taken away at the buyer's risk and expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale, in default of which Messrs. Sotheby & Co. will not hold themselves responsible if the same are lost, stolen, damaged or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser, and subject to a charge for warehousing. If, at the expiration of Two Days after the conclusion of the sale, unless otherwise agreed, the lots are not cleared or paid for, they may then be sold immediately, either publicly or by private treaty, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VII. Upon failure of the buyer to comply with any of the above conditions, the money deposited in part-payment shall be forfeited; and the defaulter at this sale shall make good any loss arising from the re-sale, together with the charges and expenses in respect of both sales.

To prevent confusion no purchase can be claimed or removed during the sale.

Messrs. SOTHEBY & Co.

are prepared to execute bids, and in addition to advise intending purchasers as far as possible, if requested by them to do so, without making any charge for either service. Lots will be procured as cheaply as is permitted by other bids or reserves, if any.

SOTHEBY & CO.

LOT 116, SALE OF SILVER, NOVEMBER 29TH

The Arms engraved on the basket are those of Macleod of Macleod. Johnson and Boswell, who visited the 23rd Chief of Macleod at Dunvegan in 1773, were struck by the handsome appointments of the house, which the former characteristically relates to the English connexion of its lady : "Lady Macdonald, who had lived many years in England, was newly come hither with her son and four daughters, who knew all the modes of southern elegance". (A Journey to the Western Islands). Boswell (Tour of the Hebrides) makes a similar comment "we had admirable tea : ladies bred in England" and adds :—"the late laird. . ." [d. 1772] "left to his widow the family plate."

Lot 113 bears the Arms and Crest of Hurst.
